Utah Fruit a Drug on Market

Producers Compelled to Unload at Almost Any Price Offered-Springs Plentiful.

Utah fruit continues to be a drug on the local market. While the wholesale dealers attempt to maintain a semblance of that things quickly go to pieces and the producers are glad to get almost any price that is offered. Nice peaches are selling as low as 15 and 20 cents a box. and grapes, the regular price of which is $1 a crate, were offered vesterday at 45 cents, with no takers, this being, however, cents, with no takers this being, however, stock that had begin to show signs of decay. Apples go at 50 cents a bushel and plums and pears are correspondingly cheap. In fact, there is no market on these products just at the present time, the price being what one can get. This condition will continue until there is a heavy frost.

Dealers continue to complain of the scarcity of hens, although springs are quite plentiful. The fish market is firm, with the supply and quality very good.
